

Astral Harvest - Camping Checklist

What to bring to the harvest:

- your ticket or printed PDF electronic ticket
- government issued identification
- camp water container - free tap water available on site
- tent & camping supplies - bedding, pillow, extra blankets, tarps, ropes, chairs
- free-standing shade structure for your campsite
- food & cooking gear (stove, pots, dishes, utensils)
- cooler (ice available for purchase on site)
- reusable coffee mug and water bottle
- flashlight with extra batteries
- warm clothes, light clothes, layers, swim suit, towel, extra socks (no, bring more!)
- warm coat for night-time, and warm hat
- sunglasses, a sun hat
- utility belt (beats a purse, especially if you have no pockets)
- running shoes, sandals, warmer shoes (2-3 pairs, one waterproof)
- rain gear & rubber boots (dancing in the mud is fun!), umbrella
- sunscreen & bug spray
- environmentally friendly soap/toiletries - don't forget your toothbrush!
- baby wipes, toilet paper
- lip balm, body lotion
- tylenol/advil or any medications/supplements you are taking
- extra contacts/glasses, contact solution
- feminine hygiene products
- condoms
- garbage bags - pack it in, pack it out!
- cell phone - reception might suck, but maybe you can take pictures with it!
- a camera
- first aid kit - 24-hour EMS on site as well
- pocket money - vendor's on site
- ear plugs
- costumes & make-up, face paint - express yo'self
- party toys - hoops, poi, staff, glow-sticks, Yoda backpacks etc -
- acoustic instruments
- spray bottle to mist yourself in the heat
- container for cigarette butts (if you smoke)
- tape - electrical, duct - you can solve just about any situation with duct tape
- sewing kit, safety pins, permanent markers
- camp deco - personalize your space
- unicycle to get around quick (or a bicycle, I guess)
- positive attitude and a smile (or two)

What to leave behind:

- animals of any kind (except party animals!)
- glass containers
- motorized ATVs
- fireworks
- weapons
- illegal drugs or substances
- negativity or aggression
- valuables